NEW FROM THE LIBRARY

The library has recently received their basic collection of popular titles and best sellers from our new book leasing program. These books are being leased to provide you with the latest best sellers in multiple copies.

The best sellers collection will be shelved in the lounge area of the library across from the paperback collection. They can be checked out for two week periods just like any other library book. There is a special section of the card catalog marked "Best Sellers" if you would like to check it for a specific title.

Some of the titles that are currently on the shelves are: Jane Fonda's Workout Book (two copies); Master of the Game (two copies); Ascent Into Hell (two copies); Acceptable Losses (two copies); The Hotel New Hampshire (five copies); Motherhood; The Second Oldest Profession (two copies).

BAND SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Shelton's instrumental music department is now accepting applications for scholarships for the 1984-1985 school year in both brass and woodwind ensembles. If you play a brass or woodwind instrument and are interested, turn in your name and telephone number to Dr. Humphrey Lee, Dean of students. Some scholarships are available for the Summer quarter for interested persons. For more information contact Dean Lee or Tom Hunter, band director.

SHELTON BRINGS FIRST BBB PROGRAM

Shelton State Community College and the Emory University School of Business will present a one day workshop on "Fund-Raising, Special Events, and Public/Private Partnerships for Non-Profits." This is the first of several workshops designed for non-profits that Shelton will present as part of the Building Better Boards for Community Organizations program. Buckner Winfield is the workshop leader. The workshop will be Wednesday, June 20, 1984 from 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. in room 87 of the Junior College Division. Workshop cost is $35.

Winfield for formerly a non-profit agency director and is now director of Emory University's School of Business Administration Program for Non-Profit Agencies, and managing partner of The Winfield Group, a consulting firm serving exclusively the non-profit sector.

Space is limited for the workshop and all applications must be in by June 13, 1984. If you are interested in attending the workshop, contact Lucy Kubiszyn, project director.

SHELTON TO ORGANIZE ALUMNI AT TECH DIVISION

The Shelton State Alumni Association will recruit and organize new members at the Technical Division beginning Fall quarter. Any faculty, staff, or administrator at the Technical Division who is interested in working with this program should contact Lucy Kubiszyn.
